Hilitary Intelligence. The right wing of the Seventh regiment, consisting of the right wing of the Seventh regiment, consisting of the Eighth, Sixth, Seventh and First companies, under the respective commands of Captains Shuaway, Nevers, Hunroe and Bensel, gave an exhibition drill last night in the large battelion drill room in their new armory over Tempkins market. The adair brought together almost fiter hundred spectators, including a fair sprinking of ladies, all of whom were admitted by inskets. The room was brilliantly illuminated for this eccasion, and very tastefully decorated with tricelered bunting. The regimental line was formed at eight o'clock precisely by Licutenant Bestwick, Adjutant passion, in the absence of Adjutant Liebenan, who was declared at home by sickness. The four companies mustered an average of seventy-three men in each, exclusive of commissioned and non-commissioned officers. The commissioned was the first own to the length of the line was the three sides of a square—the command was turned or error to Colonel Lefferts. The Colonel corrected the men for a short time in the manuel of arms, and subsequently gave the command of the regiment to the leutenant Colonel Pond. The latter officer then went into a somewhat lengthy drill in the manuel of arms, and subsequently gave the command of the regiment to Leutenant Colonel Pond. The latter officer then went into a somewhat lengthy drill in the manuel of arms, marching the regiment by flaw-(our rank formating, which were executed by files, companies, wings and battalions. The exhibition closed after the execution of a few field manocures. Among the prominent milliary men precent were Major R. S. Garnett, of the Ninth regiment United States Infantry, and Commissary General Typle, of Connecticut. The left wing will drill on Thurshynight. Eighth, Sixth, Seventh and First companies, under

UNITED STATES DISTRICT GOURT.

Before Hon. Judge Shipman.

March 18 —Ex Judge Rossevelt, United States District Atteracy, asked the Court for an order to the effect that the Marchal should some before the Court and explain the cances of the escape of Capt. Latham, who had been sommitted on a bench warrant issued out by the Court.

Judge Shipman immediately sent for the Marshal, on whose entrance the Court stated that he gave express unders; before leaving this city for Washington, that mane of the prisoners should be taken out of jail on any retence, particularly Capt. Latham, unless by an order from the District Attorney, which he knew from past capperience would not be granted. On Saturday he release of Capt. Latham from the custody of John Gallaghas, one of the Marshal's officers. Rynders immediately belegraphed to his deputy, Mr. Thempson, who was been in Washington, directing him to offer a reward of these in Washington, directing him to offer a reward of the for the capture of the prisoner, he supposed that latham would go South. The Marshal dismissed Callaghan from his office. The Marshal dismissed Callaghan from his office.  The increase of specie and deposits is rather heavier than was expected, and renders the accumulation of $40,000,000 in specie in the bank sults a matter of certainty within a few days. The gold which came in the Arabia and by other secent arrivals has not begun to count in the averages, and will not until it has been recoined in this country. The increase of deposits and the decrease of loans continue to reveal the sad condien of the commerce of the country. At this season we should be using every dollar that can be got, and it ought to be a struggle with the Minits, and yet perform their duty to the commu-

be a bad year for holders of bank stock. There is nothing new in the money market. Gilt edged paper is much wanted, and can be passed at 5 per cent. Some of the brokers have more money left with them at 5 than they can use. In the open street 6 is the general rate.

mity. The year 1861, like 1858, is evidently going

Foreign exchange advanced again this morning on the strength of the recent gold arrivals. Leading houses are asking 107 for their sterling bills, and good mercantile bills go as high as 106. This will be good news for the mercantile commumity in England. It must not be supposed, however, as the London Times and some other foreign journals seem to do, that specie is likely to flow back to England within a few weeks. Even with the rate of interest in London at 8 and here at 6, exchange must advance fully two per cent above the present rates before specie could be shipped profitably to cover 60 day bills. And it is mani-lest that as soon as the drain to this country seases, the Bank of England will yield to the mercantile pressure now exerted upon it, and will lower the rate of interest. It is possible that in July next, when the cotton shipments fall off and the end of the breadstuffs year approaches, bills may rise high enough to enable the bankers to cover with bullion. But even this cannot take place unless our internal trade improves materially and the importers obtain the means to remit to the other side.

The stock market continues dull, in the anticipation of positive news from Washington on the pending issues between the government and the Southern confederacy. The mails per Africa and Australasian, which were delivered yesterday and this morning, contained a few orders to sell stocks, and some to buy-probably fully as many of the one as of the other. The expectation that foreign holders of American securities would sell their stocks on the news of our political troubles, and that bankers on the other side would use them as a remittance, has thus been disappointed. The English, at all events, do not seem to consider Erie and Illinois Central any the worse property in consequence of the secession of the Gulf States. There was an active demand for United States securities this morning, and a fair business was done at a slight concession from the extreme prices of Saturday. Virginias and Missouris also declined 3, while Tennessees advanced 3. Among railway bonds there was some inquiry for Eries, the first and fourth mortgages especially, and for the issues of the Illinois Central and the Harlem: all advanced a fraction. The general speculative list shows little change. New York Central declined 3/4; Erie, 1/4; Hudson River, 1/4; Michigan Central, 34; guaranteed, 34; Toledo, 34; Rock Island, 34. Illinois Central advanced 34. After the board the market was dull, without material change in Hinois Central advanced 1/2. After the board the market was dull, without material change in prices. The following very important despatch is published. It shows that Savannah and other ports in the seceded States are going to make a wigorous struggle for the importing business:-

The money market shows no change to-day. Some long paper was passed at 11 a 12 per cent, and first class cky mortgage was taken at 10. There are but few really choice signatures offering, and secondary grades meet with little favor. The banks discount most of the prime endorsed short paper that is tendered, but other descriptions are difficult of sale at arbitrary rates. We did not bear of any transactions in stocks to-day. Fereign exchange has aivaneed, and prime sterling brought 105 a 104½, with the chance of a fraction higher on certain preferred names for direct remittance. The range for clear is from 104½ a 105½. Drafts with bills of lading are saleable at 104½ a 105. Francs are likewise better, sales having been made at 5f.37½, and specially required signatures will command a little more. Other bills on New York were in request, and we notice sales of strictly A1 at 1% ha 1½ per cent discount. Other good names sold at 1½ a 2, and 2½ for outsiders. Sarr & D Sawall, Treat, before reported towed into Bristol, S, 21st ult, diamasted, bad only left that port a few days previous (18th) in first rate trim, having been recaired at a cost of about $1000. She was to wed out, proceeded to Kingroad same evening, and continued on her way in tow and in charge of a pilot the following morning to Swanssa, where she was to take in cargo. There was a strong wind and heavy 2 sea at the time, the tow-rope bricke, and the ship and steamer parted company. It is conjectured that the steamer had as much as she could do to take care of herself. The ship being thus left to her own crew, and being lightly ballasted, was in a very perflous condition, especially off the Nass Sands. The auchors were then dropped, and the masts were cut away to 2 prevent going achore. In this state she lay until Wednesday 20th at 7 A M, when she was discovered by the Mars teamer which this between Bristol and Waterford).
